

SOCIAL STUDIES

D: V

Marks: 8

Time: 1

[5x1=5]

I. Fill in the blanks:

1. The total number of meridians is _____.
2. The _____ is the highest court in the state.
3. Heavy rainfall causes _____.
4. Sunderlal Bahuguna was the leader of the _____.
5. Ozone is made up of _____.

II. Match the following:

[5x1=5]

- | | | |
|-------------------|---|------------------------------|
| 1. Global warming | - | O ₃ |
| 2. Coniferous | - | Summer season |
| 3. Loo | - | On both sides of the equator |
| 4. Torrid zone | - | Himalayan mountains |
| 5. Ozone | - | CFCs |

III. Name the following:

[6x1=6]

1. The body that make laws.
2. Imaginary lines that run from North Pole to South Pole.
3. The cooler air from land blowing to the sea.
4. The king of fruits during summer season.
5. It absorbs the ultraviolet rays of the sun.
6. Head of the supreme court.

IV. Draw a neat labelled diagram showing important lines of latitudes or Parallels.

[5]

V. Explain the following terms:

[4x2=8]

1. Latitudes
2. Weather
3. Timber
4. CFCs

VI. Answer the following questions in two to three sentences each:

[7x2=14]

1. What is human environment?
2. How are forests useful to us?
3. Name any four hill stations of India.
4. Why is Shimla cooler than Ludhiana?
5. How are the members of Rajya Sabha elected?
6. Distinguish between northern and southern hemisphere.
7. What is an eclipse?

VII. Write short notes on the following:

[4x3=12]

1. Natural environment.
2. Monsoon season.
3. Lunar eclipse
4. Longitudes.

VIII. Answer the following in brief:

[5x5=25]

1. What is ozone? Explain about its depletion and about the harmful effects of depletion.
2. State the types of forests in India. Explain about the evergreen forest in detail.
3. Explain in detail about the three heat zones of the earth with the help of a diagram.
4. Describe global warming.
5. Explain any two responsibility of a citizen.