

NAME _____ ROLL NO. _____

Read the extract and answer the following questions

Q1 “ The sun and the rain will make it strong

And soon the root grow deep and long.

Then the flowers begin to show,

And the juicy fruit will grow.”

a) What will make the plant grow strong? (2)

b) What do the flowers finally change into? (2)

c) Write two pairs of rhyming words from the poem . (1)

Q2 “I will help you to divide the bread equally.

The cats were very happy. Now we can each get a fair share the bread. They said excitedly. “

a) Who came up to help the cats? (1)

b) What did the monkey suggest to the cats? (2)

c) Why were the two cats happy?

(1)

d) Write one word for:

(1)

a) stay ~~away~~ : _____

b) happily and eagerly: _____

Q3) "The flowers in the field hung down their heads.

Then darkness too began to grumble from the deep forest."

a) Who were waiting for the cool breeze to lift up their head?

(1)

b) Who grumbled from the deep forest?

(1)

c) Why were the flowers upset?

(2)

d) Give one word for:

(1)

a) a light wind : _____

b) pleasant smell: _____

Q4) " One day the woodcutter went into the forest to cut wood.

He was cutting wood near a river."

a) Where did the woodcutter live?

(1)

b) What was the woodcutter doing in the forest?

(2)

c) What happened to the woodcutter's axe?

(1)

d) Who helped the woodcutter?

(1)

Q5) "Is this your axe, woodcutter? No, No! This is a gold axe."

a) Who said these words? (1)

b) Why did the woodcutter not take the gold axe? (1)

c) Why was the goddess pleased with the woodcutter? (2)

d) Write one word for: (1)

a) an area of land covered with trees : _____

b) a female divine being : _____