

STD-IV

VALUE EDUCATION

Marks: 25

I. Fill in the blanks.

(6)

1. The purpose of our life is to _____ and _____ the God.
2. We must see God's _____ in everything.
3. Our present life is a _____ for a better life.
4. The opposite of politeness is _____.
5. A _____ person is thoughtful about the _____ of others.
6. After God and your parents, you must honour your _____.
7. Abu Ben Adhem saw an _____ sitting on his table and writing in a _____ book.
8. The best way to find God is through _____.
9. Your _____ take care of you when you are in school.

II. State whether the following are true or false:

(2 ½)

1. Everyone admires a polite person.
2. Politeness never pays.
3. Good students greet their teachers.
4. Never hurt your teachers by disobeying or disrespecting them.
5. A rude person respects the feelings of others.

III. Match the following:

(3 ½)

- | | | |
|------------------------|----|----------------------|
| 1. Children of today | -- | is power |
| 2. knowledge | -- | Aristotle |
| 3. Alexander's teacher | -- | true home |
| 4. Shivaji's guru | -- | cheerfully |
| 5. Heaven is our | -- | must be taught |
| 6. Do your duty | -- | Ramdas |
| 7. Good manners | -- | citizens of tomorrow |

IV. Answer the following questions.

(13)

1. How does obedience make a man great?
2. Why has God sent us to this world?
3. Where is our true home?
4. What does obedience demands? Give an example.
5. How do teachers help and guide you?
6. What is our purpose in life?
7. How can we love and serve God?